“Android: Mobile Apps Development”

Short term program conducted by CCSIT, Teerthanker Mahaveer University, Moradabad is a unique short term program which is coordinated by Deependra Rastogi and Deepak Kumar with support by principal of CCSIT Prof. Rakesh Kr. Dwivedi. The program is structured such that students with basic programming capability can develop Android programming skills. The program structure has significant focus on developing hands on programming skills.

This course takes you through the basics and moves on to advanced concepts in Android app development. In the ending ceremony of the program our dynamic Principal Prof Rakesh Kumar Dwivedi distributed the training kit and delivered a boost up message to student “Research has shown that it takes 31 days of conscious effort to make or break a habit.

That means, if one practices something consistently for 31 days, on the 32nd day it does become a habit. Information has been internalised into behavioural change, which is called transformation. He said that The definition of success may be relative, but its ingredients are the same – Hard Work and Sacrifice. For success, you need a goal. For a goal, you need vision. For vision, you need a passion. So your road to success begins with passion. Be passionate. Success is a tough mistress. It comes only when you attract it with hard work, lure it with effort, pamper it with determination and make love to it with commitment.”
